

Family
Alliance
Ontario

In The News

> thestar.com <

Latimer chose one path, this family chose the other

December 04, 2010

LESLIE SCRIVENER

Here is a link to the online version of a story that appeared on the front page of the Sunday December 5th edition of the Toronto Star.

The article, which generated a lot of feedback, describes how FAO Board Member Christy Barber and her husband Bill chose a different life path for their daughter, Nancy, than Robert Latimer chose for his daughter, Tracy.

The article features highlights of Nancy's inclusive life in the community, supported by strong relationships and individualized funding.

<http://www.thestar.com/news/canada/article/901846#article>

Nancy Barber, 34, with her mom, Christy, who drops her off at the STOP Community Food Centre to volunteer during the lunch programme.

TALOTTA/TORONTO STAR